IV. OLD BUSINESS

- The Nomination Committee has gathered nominations for elections.
- President Tim Irish has stated that he will not run for the 2026-2027 term.
- A nomination has been received for Ted Jagen, K5YIV as president.
- There were three nominations for Vice President; William Rantala, Jacob Martin, and Keith Beucler. Keith Beucler has declined the nomination.

- There were two nominations for Treasurer; Matt Platts and Ken Bush.
 - Nominations are officially closed at 7:21 PM.

V. NEW BUSINESS

- Parks on the Air is every third weekend of the month. Jacob Martin is hosting a group at Cleburne State Park across from the baseball field. He will be out there from 8:00 AM until 11:00 AM.
- The W5YI has put out some information regarding the government shutdown. The FCC has disabled access to their database for licensing. W5YI has provisions for testing, but requires the applicant to provide information afterwards to all parties and it will be cumbersome. The testing coordinator has decided to temporarily suspend testing until the government shutdown is lifted.
- A new club has been created in Johnson County. It is K9GDA, lead by Dustin Meier, and supported by Lockheed Martin. This club is not in competition with the JCARC, but is oriented around combining the hobby of amateur radio and K9 Search and Rescue.
- Ken Bush provided a reminder to not discuss the physical location of radio repeaters on the air in order to prevent potential issues.

VI. ADJOURNMENT

- President Tim Irish called for a motion to adjourn the meeting.
- Motion By: David Tillotson, K5DNJ
- Seconded By: Keith Beucler, KE5AWF
- Motion carried, 7:38 PM.
