IV. OLD BUSINESS

- Ted announced that the Autumn on the Square event will not be happening this year. They are going to have it every other year, and the club will hopefully be a part of it next year.

- Craig Coley has volunteered to have our annual Christmas party at his house again.
    - A motion was made by David Tillotson to have a Christmas party at Craig's house. A second from Troy was raised, with the motion carried at 7:12 PM.
    - More details were discussed regarding food and timing. David Tillotson then made a motion to have the Christmas Party in lieu of the December club meeting with a $300 budget for food. A second was received from Mike, K9MK, with the motion carried at 7:16 PM.
- David Tillotson brought up some ideas for potential club involvement, including setting up booths during local car shows or other unrelated events.

V. NEW BUSINESS

- There will be another fox hunt on November 7th. The club does a fox hunt every first Saturday of every other month. Ted provided an explanation of how a fox hunt is set up and run.
- Mike, K9MK, mentioned that people interested in the hobby need something where they can find out how to get involved. Destiny, club secretary, mentioned that it does exist on the website, but could use it to be more visible. It was mentioned to possibly include where clubs are located and how to go about getting tested.

VI. PRESENTATION

- David Tillotson, K5DNJ, presented on "My Personal Journey, KI5HWV - K5DNJ".

VII. ADJOURNMENT
